

Deborah Beuchelt Walker, daughter of Rudolph and Edna Revere, was raised in Lively, Virginia. Her family have been members of Bethel since the mid 1950's. Selma Tingle, former music director at Bethel, privately tutored Deborah in piano, organ, and music composition. Deborah began playing the piano for Bethel church services in the mid 1970's. She served as organist from 1987 to 2005, and has also directed the Junior and Chancel choirs, and the Lively Bells. In addition, she has served as pianist for Emmanuel and White Marsh churches. Currently, she is pianist and Junior handbell choir director at Bethel.
